Stewardship is a way of life...

It is a way of living each day in gratitude for all the blessings that God has given to us. The roots of stewardship can be found in the Bible, which tells us over and over that God is the Creator and Giver of all gifts. It is our responsibility to show our gratitude to God for these gifts, by giving back to God the “first fruits.”

We do not own the gifts God gives to us. We are only here on earth to use those gifts to do God’s work.

In 1992 the US Catholic Bishops released a pastoral letter on stewardship entitled: “Stewardship: A Disciple’s Response.” The Bishops described a Christian steward as one whom:

- Receives God’s gifts gratefully
- Cherishes and tends them responsibly
- Shares them in justice and love
- Returns them to God

Sharing our gifts and returning them to God means giving generously of our time, talent and treasure. We give to God by sharing with our Church and with those in need. Time and talent can be shared by becoming involved in parish life, and by offering a helping hand when needed. Treasure can be shared by making a conscious effort to make a financial gift to God first, before we pay the bills and buy the things we want.

When we give To God only after all our personal spending, we end up throwing him the loose change or having nothing left at all to give. When we give to God first, we are making a gift of faith, trusting that God will provide for our needs.

Are we truly giving God the “first fruits” just as God has asked us to do in the Bible?

Corresponsabilidad es un estilo de vida...

Es una manera de vivir cada día en agradecimiento por todas las bendiciones que Dios nos ha dado. Las raíces de la corresponsabilidad se pueden encontrar en la Biblia, que nos dice una y otra vez que Dios es el Creador y y el que Regala todos los dones. Es nuestra responsabilidad mostrar nuestra gratitud a Dios por estos dones, al devolver a Dios los "primeros frutos."

No somos propietarios de los dones que Dios nos da. Solamente estamos aquí en la tierra para usar esos dones para hacer la obra de Dios.

En 1992 los Obispos Católicos de EE.UU. emitieron una carta pastoral sobre la corresponsabilidad titulada: "Stewardship: A Disciple’s response.” (Corresponsabilidad: Una Respuesta del Discípulo) Los obispos describen a un cristiano corresponsable como alguien que:

- Recibe los dones de Dios con gratitud
- Los valora y atiende de manera responsable
- Los comparte por la justicia y por el amor
- Los devuelve a Dios

Compartir nuestros dones y devolverlos a Dios significa dar generosamente de nuestro tiempo, talento y tesoro. Le damos a Dios al compartir con nuestra Iglesia y con aquellos que son necesitados. Tiempo y talento pueden ser compartidos al involucrarse en la vida parroquial, y al ofrecer una mano de ayuda cuando sea necesario. El Tesoro se puede compartir al hacer un esfuerzo consciente de dar un regalo financiero en primer lugar a Dios me, aún antes de pagar las cuentas y de comprar las cosas que queremos.

Cuando le damos a Dios solamente después de nuestros gastos personales, terminamos tirándole lo que nos sobra o nos quedamos con nada en absoluto para darle. Cuando damos a Dios en primer lugar, estamos haciendo un regalo de fe, confiando en que Dios proveerá para nuestras necesidades.

¿Estamos dándole a Dios “los primeros frutos” así como Dios nos ha pedido en la Biblia?

Answering the Call...

The weekend of January 12th and 13th, 2013, Our Lady of LaSalette will be hosting a Stewardship Fair. The fair gives us the opportunity to learn what ministries currently exist, what ministries we would love to add and what role you might do to truly share your time and talent in God's work. The weekend of January 19th and 20th is Commitment Sunday. This is when you will return your forms indicating what ministries you might be interested in learning more about. It is also where you get to share information on your stewardship of treasure. Below is a description of what truly Stewardship of Time, Talent and Treasure is all about!

STEWARDSHIP OF TIME:

In a busy society like ours, time is one of the most precious possessions we have. How we spend our time is the clearest indication of our life of Christian discipleship. Time once spent can never be recovered. Stewardship helps people look at their lives, 24 hours each day, as an opportunity to serve the Lord.

STEWARDSHIP OF TALENT:

Our talents are the special blessings that each of us has received from our loving Creator. Stewardship means nurturing, developing and using the God-given abilities to make each of us "unique".

STEWARDSHIP OF TREASURE:

Stewardship of Treasure is not about giving to a need, but rather it is about the need to give. Stewardship is living out a commitment to be Christ-centered rather than self-centered. It is important for us to share our money and our material possessions because all the good things that God has made are meant to be shared. We need to return thanks to a loving God for the many blessings we have received.

Please accept the invitation that is found in this booklet.

It is an invitation to joyfully share the gifts God has given us by becoming more engaged in the life of our Parish.

It is an invitation to express our gratitude by sharing those gifts.

It is an invitation to Stewardship!

Respondiendo al Llamado...

El fin de semana del 12 y 13 de enero del 2013, Nuestra Señora de LaSalette será la sede de una Feria de Corresponsabilidad. La feria nos da la oportunidad de aprender que ministerios existen actualmente, que ministerios nos gustaría agregar y que papel puedes hacer para compartir realmente tu tiempo y talento en la obra de Dios. El fin de semana del 19 y 20 de enero es el Domingo de Compromiso. Es cuando usted va a regresar los formularios indicando los ministerios en los que podría estar interesado en aprender más. También es el día donde se llega a compartir la información sobre su corresponsabilidad del tesoro. ¡A continuación hay una descripción de lo que verdaderamente se trata la Corresponsabilidad del Tiempo, Talento y Tesoro!

CORRESPONSABILIDAD DE TIEMPO:

En una sociedad tan ocupada como la nuestra, el tiempo es uno de los bienes más preciados que tenemos. La forma como gastamos nuestro tiempo es la indicación más clara de nuestra vida de discipulado cristiano. El tiempo que ya ha pasado no se puede recuperar. La Corresponsabilidad ayuda a la gente a ver sus vidas como una oportunidad para servir al Señor las 24 horas de cada día.

CORRESPONSABILIDAD DEL TALENTO:

Nuestros talentos son las bendiciones especiales que cada uno de nosotros ha recibido de nuestro amoroso Creador. La Corresponsabilidad significa cultivar, desarrollar y usar las habilidades que Dios nos ha dado para que cada uno de nosotros sea "único."

CORRESPONSABILIDAD DEL TESORO:

La Corresponsabilidad del Tesoro no se trata de dar a una necesidad, sino que más bien se trata de la necesidad de dar. La corresponsabilidad es vivir el compromiso de ser Cristo-céntrico y no egoísta. Es importante para nosotros compartir nuestro dinero y nuestras posesiones materiales, porque todas las cosas buenas que Dios ha hecho están destinados a ser compartidos. Tenemos que dar gracias a un Dios amoroso por las muchas bendiciones que hemos recibido.

Por favor, acepte la invitación que se encuentra en este folleto.

Es una invitación a compartir con alegría los dones que Dios nos ha dado participando más en la vida de nuestra parroquia.

Es una invitación a expresar nuestra gratitud compartiendo esos dones.

¡Es una invitación a la Corresponsabilidad!

TESTIMONIALS

Altar Servers

I am an altar server because it is fun. It is fun because I get to wear a special outfit, and I get to be on the altar with the priest and deacon. Sometimes I get to hold the cross. It makes me feel special to help the priest and deacon. That is why I am an altar server. – Alyson Ditty

Church Cleaning and Maintenance

I find that these ministries offer a variety of opportunities for spiritual growth and reflection. While working on the grounds, it is easy to see the wonder of God's creation. Church cleaning offers an opportunity to practice humility and prayerful reflection while working in a sacred space. As I go about fixing and maintaining things in our parish, I give back to God by using the skills he has blessed me with.

Coffee & Donuts Fellowship

I serve coffee, donuts and bagels every Sunday because it is enjoyable spending an hour or two every Sunday where the church members and visitors can socialize and get better acquainted with other parishioners. It also gives members a chance to discuss activities in the parish. – Ruth Schuster

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion at Mass

Surrounded by my brothers and sisters in Christ, with deep reverence, I humbly approach the table of the Lamb in the echo of the Agnus Dei and on my lips the words "Lord I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof . . ." I am filled with awe at the Real Presence on the altar before me and yearn for the sacramental graces of the living bread from heaven to strengthen me and mend my human flaws. I experience this flood of desire and emotion at the breaking of the bread and as I serve our parish as a Eucharistic Minister of Holy Communion. For me, it was not an overnight decision to become a Eucharistic Minister. Over time, I reflected on the meaning of "active Catholic" and through lectio divina and the urging of the Holy Spirit, I was led to this ministry. It is fulfilling to see the communion lines stretch around the church, to place the "Body of Christ" on the tongue, to see the outstretched hands of those who have opened the door of their heart to Jesus, to share the chalice of His Precious Blood, to bless children and those not receiving communion, and to bring Christ to those who cannot make it to church but hunger for Him. I thank God for the many graces I have received as a Eucharistic Minister. "Happy is the soul that knows how to find Jesus in the Eucharist, and the Eucharist in all things" St. Peter Julian Eymard. – Mary Beth Smith

Being an Extraordinary Minister gives me a feeling of being intimately involved in the Eucharist and Liturgy. I feel a strong sense of the Lord's presence as I look into the eyes of the faithful – I see their faith. – Dick McDonald

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion Outside of Mass

Seeing the love and joy in the eyes of the people I serve Our Lord to, brings a feeling of strong presence of Christ within me. I have a hunger to do this ministry because of the spiritual growth I have received from serving.

Grief Support Ministry

Donna Hillhouse and I started the Grief Support Group at OLOL when we realized that our friends, who had lost a loved one through death, needed someone to talk to. From our own experiences with the loss of a spouse, we knew there was a need for a safe place for those who are grieving, to come and share their stories. The Grief Support Group has given us the opportunity to listen, comfort and encourage others as they adjust to their loss. – Dianne Halloran

When my husband died unexpectedly several years ago, I didn't know what to do...the practical things like how to handle our affairs...or if I was going to go crazy from grief and loneliness. There were no grief support groups available within driving distance and I literally felt lost. I did have some wonderful friends that kept me busy, but only one of them understood what I was facing. She had lost her husband years before.

With God's help I did survive and began a new life, but I felt that there was something I could do to help others suffering from the loss of a loved one. After many prayers God led me to the Grief Support Ministry. It is my small way to be there to listen, share, and to help others that are beginning a new life and loss. – Donna Hillhouse

Music Ministry

We are involved in this ministry, because by doing so we realize a deeper reciprocal relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ. We esteem it an honor to be of service to the One Body. We find that by faithfully continuing in what we are asked to do with enthusiastic commitment we become more and more aware of the more abundant life Jesus promised. When in service to the Church we find it's easier to flow in what we know of the Love of God, to prioritize our time and thoughts to be those from above, and not be deterred by the temporal dramas life throws at us. When we respond faithfully to God's call we develop a powerful prayer life, because we are in a position to actively love and pray for others. – Lonnie and Martha Naylor

Parochial School of Religion

I am called to serve as a catechist because I love to share my faith with others, especially children. I believe children are blessings from God, and I want them to know how special they are. By conveying the teachings of Christ and the teachings of the Church, I help students grow closer to God and gain knowledge about their faith. I am rewarded by their show of love for our Heavenly Father and for one another. – Caroline Ditty

Stephen Ministry

When I share the Lord and my faith with others in need of support, I bring Christ to them and I in turn receive Christ. I am called to be a servant of the Lord. I feel a desire to get out of the pew and use the talents God has given me. In so doing, I am filled with peace and joy. It is a feeling I cannot describe in words except to say that I feel my faith grow, and I am walking closer with Jesus. – Barbara Crosson

By my faith, the Holy Spirit and months of attending classes to be a Stephen Minister, I feel I can support others in a caring and loving manner by walking beside them, giving them a hand in a difficult time in their lives. Jesus had said, “Never will I forsake thee.” – Ruth Schuster

St. Elizabeth Seton Women’s Guild

My involvement in the Women’s Guild has enabled me to participate in various service activities that I, otherwise would not be able to assist in. I also have come to know other women in the parish better and join in their social activities.

Saint Vincent de Paul Society-Soup Ministry

This ministry has made me more aware of the needs of our community. Consequently, I have a desire to make an effort to see Jesus in all people and to seek Jesus more deeply, to trust, to guide, to lead me in this ministry and in my everyday life.

Ushers / Greeters

I find it a joyful experience to welcome everyone as they enter the house of our Lord. In offering a warm smile and a friendly greeting, it is a simple way for me to show the love of Christ. This ministry offers fellowship with all and a great opportunity to serve God in His house. – Christine Crosby

Being a member of the Greeter Ministry is a great privilege to me. You get to perform the typical “usher” duties of helping people find seating at the crowded Masses, collect the monetary gifts during Mass, and hand out the bulletin after Mass. But the best part of the ministry is being able to greet people as they come into the church before Mass. It is this opportunity to welcome people with a smile and a friendly greeting that I find the most rewarding. For some this may be the first pleasant encounter with someone else that they have had all week. I like to think it may have brightened their day a little bit. And I hope it makes everyone feel more welcome and more warmly included in the family of Our Lady of LaSalette. – Wendell Henry

Sunday, March 24	Palm Sunday - marked by a procession of the faithful carrying palm branches, representing the Jews who celebrated Christ's entrance into Jerusalem.
Thursday, March 28	Holy Thursday - the day on which Christ celebrated the Last Supper with His disciples. It commemorates the institution of the Sacrament of Holy Communion. The Eucharist is carried in procession to another place where it is kept overnight, to be distributed during the commemoration of the Lord's Passion on Good Friday.
Friday, March 29	Good Friday (A Day of Fasting and Abstinence) - commemorates the Passion and Death of our Lord Jesus Christ on the Cross. No Mass is celebrated on Good Friday; instead, the Church celebrates a special liturgy in which the account of the Passion according to the Gospel of John is read, a series of intercessory prayers (prayers for special intentions) are offered, and the faithful venerate the Cross by coming forward and kissing it. The Good Friday liturgy concludes with the distribution of Holy Communion. Since there was no Mass, Hosts that were reserved from the Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday are distributed instead.
Saturday, March 30	Holy Saturday –day of preparation for the celebration of the sacraments of initiation. On Holy Saturday after nightfall we celebrate The Great Easter Vigil in the Holy Night , we celebrate the Liturgy of Lucernarium, the Liturgy of the Word, the Liturgy of Initiation and the Liturgy of the Eucharist.
Sunday, March 31	Easter Sunday - the greatest feast in the Christian calendar. We celebrate the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead. We renew the promises of our baptism and we close the Easter Triduum with the conclusion of baptismal Vespers.
Sunday, April 7	Second Sunday of Easter / Divine Mercy Sunday
Monday, April 8	The Annunciation of the Lord (unless there is an express mandate from the Archbishop to have it before 3/25 meaning 3/23. The reason for this dichotomy is that we cannot celebrate solemnities and feasts during holy week and the octave of Easter.)
Sunday, May 12	Ascension of the Lord (Observed on Sunday) - occurs 40 days after Jesus Christ rose from the dead on Easter, is the final act of our redemption that Christ began on Good Friday. On this day, the risen Christ, in the sight of His apostles, ascended bodily into Heaven.

Catholic Holy Days and Major Liturgical Feasts at OLOL

2013	Description
Sunday, May 19	Pentecost - Christ had promised His Apostles that He would send His Holy Spirit, and, on Pentecost, they were granted the gifts of the Spirit. The Apostles began to preach the Gospel in all of the languages that the Jews who were gathered there spoke, and about 3,000 people were converted and baptized that day.
Sunday, May 26	Trinity Sunday - a moveable feast also known as Holy Trinity Sunday, is celebrated a week after Pentecost Sunday in honor of the most fundamental of Christian beliefs—belief in the Holy Trinity. The three Persons of God — Father, Son, and Holy Spirit — are all equally God, and They cannot be divided.
Sunday, June 2	Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi) - celebrates our belief that what we receive in the Sacrament of Holy Communion is not bread and wine but the true Body and Blood of Jesus Christ.
Monday, June 24	The Solemnity of the Nativity of John the Baptist
Saturday, June 29	The Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul the Apostles
Thursday, July 4	Independence Day
Tuesday, August 6	The Feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord
Thursday, August 15	Assumption of Mary (Holy Day of Obligation) - commemorates the death of Mary and her bodily assumption into Heaven, before her body could begin to decay -- a foretaste of our own bodily resurrection at the end of time.
Thursday, September 19	The Feast of Our Lady of LaSalette
Friday, November 1	All Saints Day (Holy Day of Obligation) - is the day on which Catholics celebrate all the saints, known and unknown.
Saturday, November 2	The Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed
Thursday, November 28	Thanksgiving Day
Sunday, December 1	1st Sunday of Advent - begins four Sundays before Christmas. Advent is the time of preparation for the coming of Christ at Christmas and the start of the liturgical year in the Roman Catholic Church.
Monday, December 9	Immaculate Conception (Transferred from December 8. Not a Holy Day of Obligation) - this feast celebrates the conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary in the womb of Saint Anne; and nine months later, on September 8, we celebrate the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Mary had been saved from Original Sin at the moment of her conception (thus making the conception "immaculate").
Thursday, December 12	The Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe (Patroness of all the Americas)
Tuesday, December 24	Christmas Eve
Wednesday, December 25	Christmas Day (Holy Day of Obligation) - it is the feast of the Nativity of Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. The word Christmas derives from the combination of Christ and Mass.
Sunday, December 29	The Feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph

Annual Financial Pledge in Support of our Parish

In thanksgiving for God's gifts, each household at Our Lady of LaSalette is asked to take a step to gradually move toward sacrificial giving, giving that is planned, proportionate and sacrificial.

We ask you to consider the Biblical tithe as follows:

- 5% to our parish
- 1% to the larger Church through the Archdiocesan Annual Appeal
- 4% to the charities of your choice

1. Please determine the level of your present giving.
2. Please refer to the table below and consider taking a step by pledging at the next level (to the right). For example, if you are presently giving 2% to the parish, consider pledging 3% now.
3. Complete the pledge form below, and place it in the offertory basket during Mass or mail it to the parish office.
4. Use your WEEKLY envelopes to make your donations.

Thank you for your generosity.

				You are asked to give an equal percentage to other charities (for example: if you're giving 5% to the parish in the regular Sunday envelope, give an additional 5% to other charities for 10% total giving.) Other charities might include Food Pantries and other programs for the Poor, Missions, Catholic Education donations, the Diocese, Parish Building or Debt Drives, etc.
